

From the Coach of “Madame President” MONUMENTS & MEMORIES

Hello Friends,

Another Memorial Day has come and gone, and with it the unofficial start to summer. As I write this, the thermometer here in Illinois is threatening 100 degrees, and Ron and I (and Millie, too) are enjoying a lazy afternoon in the air-conditioned “man cave”, which is a good opportunity for me to put a few thoughts to paper.

I hope everyone had a great Memorial Day. We attended a service at a local cemetery where many of Elgin’s war heroes are buried—something we have not done in a long time. We were pleased to see a nice crowd at the ceremony, and it was especially gratifying seeing families with young children in attendance. Memorial Day is all about remembering those brave men and women who gave the ultimate sacrifice in service to our country, and not about a backyard BBQ or a giant mattress sale.

While encamped in Washington, D.C., we had our own memorable moments. The nighttime tour of the monuments was fantastic, wasn’t it? These memorials are beautiful during daylight hours, but there was something magical about them at night, and they seemed to come alive, especially the Korean War Memorial. Selfishly, I am happy Ron was able to share the story of his time in Korea, and of his high school buddy, Willard Schuldt (who did not return from Korea) while at the memorial. I am even happier the truce was signed on July 27, 1953-- Ron’s 21st birthday--the day that very likely would have been his last on this earth. Later in the week, in a moving ceremony, four of our club’s veterans laid a wreath at George Washington’s tomb. I was so pleased they received this honor! Thank you to all the veterans in the Royale Coach Club for your service to our country!!

While there were many memorable moments during the rally, for me the highlight of our time in Washington, D.C., was meeting Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas. He is such a nice man, kind and funny, and smart, of course, and he amazed me how interested he was in each of us. I think he could have talked for hours about the Prevost lifestyle and how much he loves his coach! It was a privilege meeting him. I’m thankful Justice Thomas got to the bottom of the “to-do” pile on his desk and answered Mary’s letter!

Many thanks to JOHN & MARY HABICHT for a great rally! Thanks are also in order to DAVE WALL & LIBERTY COACH as well as ROBERT JONES & PREVOST for your generous support of the Royale Coach Club. Thank you also to first-timers MIKE & CINDY BARBEAU for joining us in Washington—it was great meeting both of you, we hope you had a great time at that we see you again very soon. THANK YOU TO ALL OF YOU!

Moving on to other important club business...

I am sure you all realize our club does not simply “run” itself. It takes folks willing to step up into leadership roles for our club to function. It has been my privilege to serve as the 1st VP and as your President. I have worked on the Board of Directors with terrific people, and I am grateful for their skills and I thank them for their service. We will be electing a new leadership team at the fall rally. Please consider how you might best serve our club, and either offer your expertise by calling a member of the nominating committee (Bud McCollum, Rita Bunch, and Tom Kyle) or by saying “yes” when asked to serve. You will receive all the help and guidance you need from the outgoing Board, so the transition will be smooth. Please help our wonderful club stay strong, viable and FUN!

Finally, by now many of you have heard Ron and I are hoping to sell our coach within the next few months. We have been full-timing/quasi - full-timing for over 12 years...every minute a blessing...but we are ready for the next chapter, which hopefully involves high-rise condo living in Fort Myers, Florida. We will be sad to see the coach drive away, but we know in our hearts it is the right thing for us to do. Unfortunately, our timing could not be worse for selling a coach, so we shall see. We know it is all in God’s hands, and EVERYTHING will happen in His perfect timing.

I mention this because at some point we will all move away from this crazy/wonderful lifestyle, and I want all of you to be thinking about how we can continue to enjoy the many friendships that have blossomed as a result of the Royale Coach Club. At the May club meeting, I suggested we explore forming an “alumni club” for former members who have either sold their coaches or down-sized to smaller rigs, and that perhaps we could piggyback alumni get-togethers onto our official club rallies, perhaps before the rally begins. We might even consider special non-coach group travel (i.e. cruises, etc.). Please consider this and share your thoughts with Mary Habicht, Bo Reahard or myself. We welcome your input. We will be discussing this in greater detail at our fall gathering.

In closing, we look forward to seeing you in Oshkosh, Wisconsin, at EAA Airventure 2011 the end of July, and then at our “Cowboy Country and Yellowstone National Park” rally in September. In the meantime, have a great summer, travel safely, and stay cool!

God Bless,

Laurel Volberding

Encampment in Washington

Royale Coach Club Spring Rally Recap By Kally Kitchings

High traffic on the beltway for everyone, accidents happening directly in front of our bus, other buses running over gators in the road and even a blown out steering axle tire did not deter anyone from attending John and Mary Habicht Encampment in Washington rally. We all made it safely to Cherry Hill RV Park in College Park, MD and I must say that the RV Park was wonderful. The park personnel were very helpful, the banquet and side rooms were spacious, many used the restaurant and I loved their work out facility. What a great park for a rally.

As each coach registered and parked in their spot, they were greeted by John and Mary and given their registration packet. Of course, we really cannot call it a packet since it was actually a beautiful basket with each lady's name embroidered on it. We can all say a thank you to Rita Bunch for this stunning basket and the embroidered tea towel inside. John and Mary arranged for an impromptu pizza party the night before the rally started. The saying still holds true . . . if you are not a couple days early for the rally then you are actually late!!

Our first trip into Washington, DC was not an actual function of the rally. Bob Moss volunteered his time to lead a group of "early" people to tour our Nation's Capitol Building. Bob researched all the public transportation information and information about the tour. He even drove down days earlier and did a "dry" run for us to make sure it was perfect. He did a wonderful job because the tour went off without a hitch.

Bob Moss – Our leader

Most of us ate lunch in the Capitol Building cafeteria and then had time to explore other areas. Tom Kyle, Ron and I decided to tour the Library of Congress. If I would have known the particulars a little sooner I would have been able to get an actual "Library Card" to be able to check out a book!

We arrived back at the campground in plenty of time for the first official function of the rally, which was the wine and cheese gathering given by our sponsor Liberty Coach. Of course Liberty does not do anything half way so there was so much more than wine and cheese offered - - - Thanks Liberty!! Everyone wondered how we were going to be able to eat our wonderful Encampment Meal after dining on the Liberty food - - - but we managed! Then it was off on the buses provided by Prevost (with a dessert bag) for our nighttime tour of Washington, DC. This was also the first leg of Mary's DC Hunt Game. So many things to find, so little time. Here are a few photos of the monuments we viewed or visited during our tour.

The printed schedule that was handed out in our rally packet showed our second day (Tuesday) as a free day. Tuesday was anything but a free day. Almost at the last moment, Mary received a phone call that woke her from a sound sleep from Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas. Mary had sent him a letter many many months before requesting a meeting for our club. Unfortunately, she never received a reply because her letter had been lost in a paperwork nightmare. However, when the letter was found she received a personal call from the Justice trying to arrange the meeting. Justice Thomas was kind enough to clear his schedule Tuesday morning to meet with our club. In addition, since Bob Moss had been our leader to DC the day before he was quickly nominated to be our leader again.

As with any government office there was a little bit of “hurry up and wait” but in the end, it was well worth it. This meeting was not anything like I imagined, i.e.: stuffed shirt and boring. Oh my goodness, Justice Thomas’s laugh was bellowing and he had everyone laughing with him. Yes, we learned about the Supreme Court and how it functions but we learned more about C.T.’s (as his wife calls him) life as an RV’er and that he is just a regular person with regular likes and dislikes. He loves his Prevost bus and the lifestyle that goes with it just as all of us love our buses and lifestyle. This meeting, in my opinion, was the highlights of the rally. I know our entire club would like to thank Justice Clarence Thomas for giving us his time. In addition, a big thank you to Mary for writing that letter so many months ago.

Wednesday, day 3, proved to be a very busy day. It started with a delicious and filling breakfast followed by the Royale Coach Club business meeting. Something that is always discussed at the business meeting is welcoming our first timers and this meeting was no exception.

First Timers Mike and Cindy Barbeau

After the business meeting we boarded the Prevost provided buses (Thanks Prevost!) for the day at Mount Vernon. I think all of us learned a lot that day. The film we watch was very informative and the personal gave us a lot of information (getting those answers for Mary's DC Hunt Game.) One thing I learned from my childhood that was not true was George Washington's teeth were not made out of wood. How do those rumors get started?

Dinner at Mount Vernon was fabulous. I went through the chocolate sauce line three times because it was so good. Mary found out it was a hot fudge sundae topping made by Monarch. The chef then added a chocolate liquor and hot water as it cooked. Mary is trying to get more information on this before the next rally. The other recipe everyone wanted was for the corn bread salad. You can find that recipe posted in the newsletter. Everything was so good.

Thursday was a split day with most of the women boarding the bus with Mary to go to Ellicott City for shopping/lunch and most of the men (and a couple women) boarded the other bus for a tour and lunch at the Volvo Plant.

Buffet Line at Volvo Plant

Dinner that evening was a potluck and once again, the meal was delicious. I guess what surprised me was that the amount of food was huge - - - and it was all eaten! The only thing we had to take back was empty dishes. This was also the final night to play Mary's game "Who the heck is that in the baby photo?" Madam President Laurel Volberding won the game and was awarded the first of two Capitol Flown Flags Mary was able to obtain.

Girl Babies

Boy Babies

Aren't we all just precious!!

Another scrumptious breakfast started out our Friday morning. It was time to step back on the buses and head out to tour Annapolis and the United States Naval Academy. It was an honor to see the young men in women in uniform walking around the campus. It was a real treat to see the Heisman Trophy won by Roger Staubach while he played football at the Naval Academy. Of course, everyone knows Roger went on to play for the Super Bowl Champion Dallas Cowboys (I had to throw this little tidbit in!!)

Cadets in Uniform

Roger Staubach's Heisman Trophy

We left Annapolis and drove to the McCormick and Schick's Seafood Restaurant for our farewell dinner. The seafood was wonderful and the service was great. On the way back to the campground, Mary gave and judged all the answers to the DC Hunt Game. Larry and Kay Jones were the winners and received the second Capitol Flown Flag. Congratulations to our game winners.

Saturday morning came much too soon and our goodbyes had to be said. Thanks to Graham and Mary Catherine Ricks for the taking and printing of our group photos. Our thanks to Mary Habicht for putting together a wonderful rally. Of course we thank John too because he did whatever Mary told him to do! The tours were great and the food was delicious but, as always, the best part of the rally was you! I want to thank all of you for coming to the rally because your friendship and fellowship is always the best part. And as Forrest Gump would say,

"I am glad I got to visit with you in our Nation's Capitol."

ROYALE COACH CLUB PAWS RALLY

By Maxamillion "Max" Kitchings

It's not fair, it's just not fair. I overheard Mom and Dad talking about the tour of Mount Vernon that everyone from the Royale Coach Club went on and they said that four legged family members were allowed on the tour. Well I know what that means. It means I could have gone with everyone if mom would have checked things out in advance. I told this to Oliver Moss and he was NOT a happy camper either! I guess I need to forgive Mom this time because she did say she would take me to Yellowstone National Park in the fall so I could see all the different animals there. I think that will be great!

I loved walking around Cherry Hill RV Park and visiting with old and new friends. I am so glad everyone remembers me and knows my name.

Since we came in a little early for the rally, mom and dad took me to visit some family members. All of us went to a place called Harper's Ferry and we walked and walked and looked at everything. We ate lunch on an outdoor patio and the nice waitress brought me a cool bowl of water. I told Dad to give her a really big tip for being so nice. I also got to do a little rock climbing. Here's a photo!

After we left Harper's Ferry, we went to an outdoor music festival at a winery. I even got my own glass of wine . . . here is a photo of me and dad enjoying a glass.

Of course you know that I am just kidding. I am still below drinking age and mom will not let me get a fake ID!!

I hope everyone enjoyed the rally as much as I did and I cannot wait to see everyone again at Terry and Kathy Solberg's rally in Wyoming and Montana. That is going to be so much fun.

Until then, safe travels and happy trails!

ROYALE COACH CLUB FALL RALLY – SEPTEMBER 7-13, 2011
“COWBOY COUNTRY AND YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK”
A “Rolling Rally” from Cody, Wyoming to West Yellowstone, Montana

Cody, Wyoming was founded in 1896 by the living legend, Colonel William F. "Buffalo Bill" Cody, who at the age of 41 was one of the most famous men in the world. Cody, known for his exploits as Pony Express rider, scout, hunter, entrepreneur and showman, had become the friend of presidents and kings, senators and governors and many of the country's most influential business people as a result of his genius and showmanship. Cody's "Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show," toured for thirty years, and captivated audiences around the world. Cody continues to retain the true "cowboy country" atmosphere today.

Yellowstone National Park, America's first national park, declared a national park in 1872 by the U.S. Congress, contains more than two million acres of steaming geysers, crystalline lakes, thundering waterfalls, panoramic vistas, and a remarkable diversity of wildlife. Yellowstone National Park has attracted visitors from virtually every state and country ...And we are proud of the national treasure that is Yellowstone.

Cody, Wyoming and Yellowstone National Park are beckoning you to come to the Royale Coach Club's Fall Rally in September 2011. Here's what's in store:

Arrival will be at the Ponderosa Campground in Cody, Wyoming. We will spend three nights in Cody - September 7, 8, and 9. While in Cody, you will have the unforgettable experience to wrap yourself in the spirit of the American West at the world famous Buffalo Bill Historical Center (BBHC). The BBHC is affiliated with the Smithsonian Institution and is literally five museums under one roof – the Buffalo Bill Museum, the Natural History Museum, the Cody Firearms Museum (containing the largest collection of American firearms in the world), the Plains Indian Museum, and the Whitney Gallery of Western Art...there's something for everyone. Following an honest-to-goodness gunfight in the streets of Cody, we will have dinner at the historic Irma Hotel, founded by Buffalo Bill in 1902, and be entertained by the Dan Miller Cowboy Music Revue, a Branson-style music variety show, featuring authentic music of the American West, cowboy poetry and comedy with a variety of traditional western, bluegrass, and gospel music. Another evening we will dine (and dance if you want to) at Cassie's, where entrepreneur Cassie Waters established a business in 1922 (and you can figure out what kind of business a female entrepreneur offered in the rough and tumble west in the 1920's!!). You'll have a mostly free day on the 9th to explore other sights in and around Cody. We'll provide some suggestions, such as driving the scenic Beartooth Highway north of Cody, which the late CBS correspondent Charles Kuralt called "the most beautiful drive in America" on his TV show “On The Road;” shopping on Cody’s quaint downtown main street; or returning to the Buffalo Bill Historical Center if you didn’t get your fill the day before (your admission is good for two days).

On September 10, we will unplug our power cords and depart Cody to drive to West Yellowstone, Montana, through Yellowstone National Park, going in the East entrance and out the West entrance. This is a 135 mile drive, but the portion thru the Park itself - about 83 miles - is slow going. You’ll only average 30-35 miles an hour, so plan for the drive to take you a good four hours. THIS IS IMPORTANT – If you are 62 years of age or older, you may already have a Golden Age Passport, (now called the National Parks Pass) which costs $10 and gives you free admission to all National Parks and Monuments. PLEASE BRING IT WITH YOU. If you don’t have one, it can be purchased at the Park Entrance. If you are not 62 years old, the Park Entrance Fee is $25 (good for seven days) and these fees are NOT included in your Rally Fee.

We will stay at Grizzly RV Park in West Yellowstone, Montana, spending the nights of September 10, 11, and 12. In West Yellowstone, you will enjoy a guided tour of the Grizzly and Wolf Discovery Center and see these amazing critters in excellent recreations of their natural habitat. We will visit the IMAX Theater to see a movie about Yellowstone, and you can return to see movies about Lewis and Clark and Amazing Caves if you wish, plus there is additional free time that afternoon in West Yellowstone to explore on your own. On Monday, September 12 we will board Prevost buses for a guided tour into Yellowstone National Park, with stops at such world famous sites as Old Faithful and the Yellowstone Falls. One evening will include The Pine Cone Playhouse Dinner Theater, to see a “GI Juke Box Musical,” promising music and fun from the 40’s, 50’s and 60’s (right up our alley, eh??). Our “farewell dinner” will be a Western BBQ, before you say good-bye to your Royale Coach Club friends.

The Rally Masters for the Fall Rally are Terry and Kathy Solberg, who live in Cody, Wyoming. The Rally is limited to no more than 35 coaches, due to limitations on available RV sites at the campground. If you plan to come to Cody before the rally or stay in West Yellowstone after the rally, you will need to make your own reservations directly with the Ponderosa Campground (307-587-9203) or the Grizzly RV Park (406-646-4466). If you tell them you are coming for the Royale Coach Club Rally, they will honor the rally rates. September is still VERY BUSY in Cody and West Yellowstone, so don’t assume you can make a reservation at the last minute...call early. Rally Registrations are due no later than August 1, 2011. You will not need any “dress-up” clothes, but bring your jeans, boots, and cowboy hats if you want to. All of the venues mentioned have websites, so you can “google” any of them for more information. Once you register, we’ll send you more information about other sights and activities in the Cody and West Yellowstone areas, to fill up your “free time.” If you have any questions, call or email Terry and Kathy at any time (307-587-3369 or tsolberg@tctwest.net.)

An Upswing for 2011

by Frank Konigseder

As we look back on the first 3 months of 2011, I'm pleased to report that we have seen an increase in sales that has outpaced the 1st quarter of the past 4 years. I believe this can be attributed to several factors; a general feeling that the economy is starting to improve, all be it at a slower pace than we would like to see, which has translated to an increased confidence that helped bolster sales, and the persistent hard work and dedication of our entire staff. Our sales team has weathered some very tough years but their continued professionalism and commitment to Liberty Coach and the motor coach lifestyle has generated sales numbers we have not seen in recent memory. Our service and production staff never wavered from their commitment to provide our customers with the best quality product and diligent customer service. With the economy continuing to gain strength and the steady upward trend in sales, we will be taking steps to continually improve not only our product but our brand as well. Soon we will debut a brand new Liberty Coach website that will be more informative, exciting and robust. We also have new floor plans and interior designs just around the corner as well as new mechanical innovations we will implement to continue to distinguish Liberty Coach as the benchmark of the industry.

Concerns about fuel pricing and helpful tips

By Frank Konigseder

As the economy improves we are facing the price of fuel increasing at a surprising rate. No matter what level of the RV market you are in, this becomes a consideration. Here are a few ways I have found that may help to improve your fuel economy and lessen the impact:

Reduce your speed. In my travels by coach the past few years I have noticed that in 2004 and newer coaches equipped with the EGR Detroit Diesel engines, keeping your speed from climbing above 65mph can improve your fuel economy as much as 1mpg or more.

Check your tire pressures regularly. Tire pressures that are too low can increase the overall workload of the engine. Checking your tire pressures regularly also applies to what you are towing as well, either your trailer or tow vehicle. This can also prolong the life of your tires.

Travel shorter distances and/or stay longer at your destination. This practice was reported by many resorts during the last surge in fuel prices two years ago.

Keep up with engine maintenance. Both the main engine and generator engine need regular maintenance to run most efficiently. A dirty or clogged air filter cannot only cause engine damage but will greatly reduce fuel economy.

Cruise Control. Another proven fuel saving method is to use your cruise control whenever you can. It has been shown that the steady smooth throttle pressure applied by the cruise control is more efficient than the heavy, less even pressure when depressing the gas pedal with your foot. It is important to note that if your coach is equipped with a transmission retarder it is still active when using the cruise control. You may want to move the joy stick lever to its full forward or "up" position so that the engine and transmission are not hunting for the correct speed especially in areas with uphill and downhill grades.

Often times when fuel prices increase, the typical reaction of many people is to suspend travel but here are a few things to consider:

According to PKF Consulting, the price of fuel would have to triple from the current level to make coaching more expensive than other forms of travel. PKF's spring 2008 vacation cost comparison study shows that RV trips remain the most affordable way for a family to travel due to the significant savings on airfare, hotel and restaurant costs, which all continue to rise.

There is no doubt that RV travel remains a great value. The PKF Vacation Cost Comparison study showed that a family of four can save 26-71% on vacation costs.

Moving Up? Moving On? We've got our eye on current industry trends!

As we progress into the second quarter of 2011, we have been fortunate to see a significant increase in both NEW and USED coach sales. Since new production has been curtailed, we are starting to realize a shortage of late model used coaches.

If you are considering moving up to a newer coach, into your first Liberty Coach or possibly transitioning to a different recreational lifestyle, now might be the perfect time! The value of used coaches is higher today than we have seen in our history. We would love to have the opportunity to work with you and find an option that best suits your situation.

Open House Rally 2011 Highlights

We had a great turnout for this year's Open House Rally at Liberty Coach of Florida in Stuart. The weather was sunny and warm. We had over 40 coaches join us, from 16 states for this event that started with a Redneck Yacht Club Themed Party on Thursday Feb. 3. We enjoyed the country tunes of Burnt Biscuit, some line dancing, and good company. Friday was another beautiful day! The men enjoyed lunch and all things mechanical at a Tech Talk session. The ladies enjoyed some special pampering at Saks Fifth Avenue where Fonda spoiled us with a master makeup session and products to try. Friday evening we rode the courtesy coaches generously provided by Prevost Car, to Out of the Blue for dinner on the marina in Jupiter. The weather was perfect and so was the music by steel drum artist Bob Lyons. We started our Saturday with a cooked to order breakfast on-site and some gorgeous Florida sunshine. Inside the showroom we had complimentary chair massages, a beautiful jewelry trunk show from Tara Dishinger of Stella & Dot, and wonderful BBQ lunch from Swanky's Low & Slow BBQ cart. All topped off with an ice cream social compliments of Kirk Rose from Hearthside Grove Motorcoach Resort in Petoskey, MI. Saturday evening's theme was a Mad Hatter Party where we tipped our hats to the world's best customers!

We all enjoyed making our crazy videos that Flipbook Creations turned into a souvenir picture flipbook given to everyone. It was lots of fun and the hats were amazing!
